Sue Doerfler

Senior Writer Inside Supply Management® magazine

As the senior writer for Institute for Supply Management®'s Inside Supply Management magazine and Inside Supply Management Weekly e-newsletter/blog, I write and edit articles about topics, trends and issues relating to supply chain management.

I have worked for ISM for seven years; previously I was a newspaper reporter at the Arizona Republic covering such topics as retail, entrepreneurs, home décor, home building and general features. I'm married; our son, daughter-in-law and grandson live in Setagaya.

Jennifer M. Driscoll Profile

Counsel at Robinson & Cole, NYC and DC offices

Jennifer's practice focuses on government investigations, antitrust, and data privacy. She has represented corporate and individual clients in fraud and antitrust investigations conducted by U.S. regulatory agencies, including the Department of Justice, Federal Trade Commission, and Office of the Inspector General. She also counsels clients about anticorruption issues, antitrust laws, including mergers and acquisitions, and compliance with federal and state data privacy laws. Jennifer currently holds two leadership positions in the American Bar Association's Section of Antitrust Law and is part of the committee that submits opinions on antitrust law developments to non-U.S. agencies, including the Japan Federation of Bar Associations and Japan Federal Trade Commission. As part of her data privacy credentials, Jennifer is a Certified Information Privacy Professional-US.
